RAE, Pte J.W. 1364 ~~Left Hpts~~. M.May 28th 1915.

This date cannot be right as we left Australia on May 8th and took five weeks to get to Alexandria, and if he was missing on May 26th he would have been missing on board ship. There must be an error somewhere.

Wounded and Missing, 25/4/15, and mentioned in our cable of the 31st March. Alleged to have been transferred to No. 1364, 5th Btn.

Pte. William Regan, No. 352, 7th Btn. returned soldier, stated he was with the casualty on the 5th May, 1915, travelling from Gaba Tepe to Cape Hellas.

Pte. William Robinson, 8th Btn. returned soldier, states that he was talking to the casualty on the Beach at Anzac early in July, 1915, and has no doubt that the man he was talking to was the casualty and gave an accurate description of him to the casualty's father.

J.W.Rae, who was known as Walter Rae, was in D.Coy, and witness who knew him quite well, is certain about the initials. The 23 Battalion landed on the Peninsula on Sept. 4th and witness states ~~xxxx~~ that Rae was not with them, having been left behind in hospital at Cairo. Witness also states that Rae arrived on the Peninsula shortly afterwards and was almost at once sent away again as being too ill to ~~xxxx~~ serve. Sgt. Toovey states that he met Rae last January at Ghezeh, Rae had then just come out of hospital.

I know him very well. He is a short stout Englishman of about 24, with dark hair. I was in the County of London hospital at Epsom with him, and was also with him in No. 20 General Hospital - about 2 months ago.
