AUSTRALIANS, 7. Batt- Dvn Med. Enquiry

WOOD, Private G.W. 511. M. April 25th 1915.

George Williams

I am in the 6th Battalion and he was in the 7th, but we were great friends and lived two doors from each other at home. I made special enquiries about him, as also did Private Alexander of the 6th Battalion. The latter went to hospital in England and brought back the news that he had been killed. He saw this in the English papers. Private P. Alexander, Machine Gun Company, 6th Battalion, Australian Imperial Force, would find him.

Reported Missing.

Informant states that this casualty was killed at Cape Hellas. The reasons for this belief are that informant met Sgt. Young of the 7th Btn. B. Coy. at Harefield, Sussex in September 1915, and in conversation, Young told informant that this casualty was killed in the charge on Cape Hellas on the 8th of May. Sgt. Young said he(himself(was wounded in the same charge. Sgt. Young is doing duty at Epsom. His father keeps the Railway Hotel in Puckle Street, Moonee Ponds.

Pte. G.W. 511

Officially reported wounded and missing, and mentioned in our cable of the 16th December.

Cpl. Bugler Connell, 520, of the 7th Btn. formerly D. Coy. but later B. Coy. writes to the relatives that casualty was lying near the informant, about half way up the hill at Gaba-Tepe, both badly wounded on the morning of the 25th April. That the casualty was shot through the small of the back, and appeared to be in great pain. The informant called to him, but received no answer. The casualty was carried away by stretcher bearers and that was the last the informant saw of him. Casualty was a great friend of Pte. E.W. Junier, No. 463, D. Coy. 7th Btn. since reported missing. The informant states the casualty was carried to the Beach and died there, as he has not heard of him again.
