Informant states that "On Aug. 27th at Anafarta I saw Stone killed and his body taken out of the trench. This was in trench fighting about 5 p.m., on the left of the line, at the foot of Hill 971. He would probably be buried behind the trenchs there. The ground was held."

Witness said Stone was killed in a charge toward the end of Aug. Cpl P.Hayes, D Co., 4/15th Btn., told witness soon after the charge that he had seen Stone's body lying on the parapet of the Turkish trenches during the charge. This was on the left toward Suvla. Stone was wounded early in the Gallipoli campaign. He was sent to Malta and returned from hospital about Aug 25. On August 27 about 50 men were sent out in a charge. They got only a few yards from the Australian trenches. Those who were not killed ~~did~~ to return. Witness was one of those who returned. Most of the men were killed or wounded. Stone must havebeen killed. He was never seen again. He could not possably have been taken prisoner since the Turks did not come near the place where the men fell in this charge.
