Australian Red Cross Commissioner

Sir

On the 16th of October 1916 I received information through the Military of the death of my son no. 3934 Cpl. Robert Webster killed in action 16th August 1916. Early in 1917 I received word from a returned soldier saying that he saw him later & strong. Could you possibly help me in this matter & give me any information as to how I should act or what would be the best & quickest to take to remove all doubt from my mind. Trusting you will favour me with a
