Dear Sir,

In reply to your inquiry for the address of 3951, L/Cpl. F.E.Wheatley, we beg to state that we learn from a post card received from him at Headquarters, dated 20.5.17, that he is interned at Soltan.

Letters and post cards (which generally arrive more safely) should be addressed thus :-

Kriegsgefangenensendung
British Prisoner of War.
3951 L/Cpl. F.E. Wheatley,
13th Australian Infantry Battalion,
Kriegsgefangenenlager,
Soltan Z 3605
Hannover, GERMANY.

No mention of the war must be made in any communication to prisoners.

We are enclosing a printed slip giving details

13th July 1917.

of parcels that we send to him and all other Australian prisoners of war in Germany.

Any further information can be obtained from the Secretary of our Prisoners of War Department, here in this building.

If you will notify us of any change in your address we shall advise you if your friend should be transferred to another camp.

With every good wish to you,

Yours faithfully,

per. A.C.
