W Unoff M. Sept 2 0th 1917.

The above name and number are mine and I was slightly wounded in the leg as I was carrying bombs on a fatigue party behind our lines at the Menin Road on what is known as Lone Track on the 21st Sept by a shell. But I rejoined the company and came out with them that same night. I left the Battalion on the 3rd Dec. when we were in rest billets at Devres as I was suffering from trench fever.

"Wounded, unoff. Missing 20-9-17"

Rube Wheeler, the only Wheeler I knew in the Battn., was with the Coy. on 18th Oct., and was wounded in the arm that day up Zonnebeke way. I saw him, and know him personally. Is in B.Coy., had not been away from the Coy., and had a M.M. presented to him in Oct. at Halifax Camp.
