Witness states that he was told by a stretcher-bearer that Young, who had just gone on sentry post at Russell's Top, had been killed by a bullet in October. Belonging to 26th Btn. witness and Young were on post together at same time - 1st night of snow- and Pte Young was moved to another post just about 9 o4clock at night. Young then had to take the place of another man who had never been "observing" in trenches before. This man was to join witness. Young had just gone to his new position and was just making his first obserwation when he was shot in the head. This fact was also reported by the man, whose place Young was filling, when he joined witness. Is positive that he was Killed. Did not know= Younf except in the trenches. Was a thick-set, nuggety fellow, aged about 24. Thinks came from Enoggera, Q'land. Young was in B Co., 3rd Platoon.

Young,
Pte. J. 1926

Unoff. K.in A, 28/11/15:

Young came over from Australia as a corporal. Witnesses and he were in the same reinforcements. He was shot through the head, while looking over the parapet on observation duty at Walker's Ridge on a day late in November, and was killed outright. Both witnesses were in the vicinity at the time. They did not see Young killed, but heard about his death immediately. He was a stoutly-built young fellow with a broad Scotch accent.
