14th AUSTRALIANS SMITH, J.J. 5462

K. Feb. 5th.1917. Det. D/B.

I knew Pt. J.J. Smith in B.Co. VII.Pltn. He was fairly thickset, fair, and about 23 or so years of age. He went away to Hospital wounded from Messines about June 14th. or 15th. His number was in the 6000's. He was not badly wounded, and in fact he ran part of the way to the Dressing Station. I do not know what Hospital he is in, but am sure he was all right.
