Dear Miss Whybrow.

Mrs Turner received your letter of the 3rd inst. and is deeply distressed with the news, as she is to sail for Australia, from London on the 15th July, she still intends doing so, if this news does not interfere with her passage in any way. She is wondering if there could be any mistake, as 92 A. was never used on any of her papers, it was always 92 Pte J.S. Turner, she will be greatly indebted to you, if you will please forward her any further particulars, you may get.

Yours Truly.
J. Armstrong. (Sister)

Miss J. Armstrong.
89, Hanover Street,
BELFAST.

Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter on behalf of the wife of 92a. Pte T.S. Turner 12th Field Ambulance A.I.F. we much regret to inform you that there is no mistake in the sad news which we had to forward to her.

We have had Pte Turner's number verified and it is given as 92a because there was another man with the same number in the unit.

Unfortunately we have received no further particulars, but we should be glad to have an address which will find Mrs Turner, up to the time she sails for Australia, so that we may communicate with her if the occasion should arise .

We are appending the address of our Office in Melbourne in case Mrs Turner should apply there on her arrival in Australia:-

"Australian Red Cross Society"
Colonial Mutual Chambers.
60, Market Street.
Melbourne. Australia.

Kindly assure Mrs Turner of our sincere sympathy in her loss.

Yours faithfully,
