Dear Madam,

With reference to your letter of the 21st inst. regarding the late No.5954 Pte.A.Taylor, 24th Battn.A.I.F,I have to inform you that he was admitted here on October 8th 1918 from Sutton Veney Camp,Warminster, where he had, I understand, sustained an injury to his left arm while on duty there. This was not of course, the cause of his death, but while in Hospital he developed pneumonia and died on November 10th 1918 from heart failure. He was buried with his Australian comrades at Brookwood Cemetery, Woking, on Nov.19th 1918 with full military honours, and the number of his grave is 182262 Australian ground

Yours faithfully,

Major, R.A.M.C.,T
