"Missing 15.4.17."

On April 15th 1917 at Denicourt Pte. Gane and the 6 accompanying cases were a party holding a forward post near the German lines. Only one man returned and he was wounded. He stated positively that all these seven men were taken prisoner. The wounded man made this statement in the presence of the Informant and several others. They were attacked about 3 or 4 a.m. It was dark.

Eye-witness: No, cannot remember name of men who told him.
Description: Medium build - brown hair. Son of T. Hogan.
