The Secretary
Australian Red Cross Society,
London.

Dear madam,

As my brother, No. 5043, Private
W. G. Clayton, C. Company, 11th Battalion (W.A.)
A. I. F., has been reported missing since 10th April this year, & having information that your Society has done invaluable work in tracing missing men, I wondered if you would be able to get any news of my brother.

The Defence Dept, can tell us nothing further than that he is missing. The Melb. Red Cross are making inquiries, as are also the Y. M. C. A., but so far we have had no news, & it will now soon be 7 months since date of missing.

Should you be able to do anything for me, I shall be truly grateful.

If it be possible to cable, to be paid at this end, please address: ~~Millaguin~~ "Millaguin" Melbourne.

Thanking you in anticipation of an early reply.

Yours faithfully
Dulce Clayton.
