23rd AUSTRALIANS McALISTER. P.W.J. 6095

M. May 3rd.1917.

He was short, stout, fair, had a ginger moustache, and was about 25 or so years of age. I saw him coming out on a stretcher, wounded, at Bullecourt on May 3rd or 4th. I had not time to stop, and do not know how bad he was. I was on the way to the front line; it was about ½ way to our objective. We had to retire, and do not hold this ground.
