CONSDON, R.O. 256.

M. October 12th, 1917.

He was in B.V. and I know him well. Aged 30, tall, thin, clean-shaven, fair. I last saw him on October 12th about 10 a.m. in front of Passchendaele. He was wounded in arm or hand and was making his way to D/S. I spoke to him. M/G fire very heavy and he hesitated to venture back but we decided it was best for him to make attempt. Never heard more of him. He had attacked and were dug in but exposed to heavy fire. D/S a mile away and half distance exposed to shell and M/gun fire.
