D/W. April 10/18. Det. D/B.

I was alongside Jackson when he gtt a bullet right through the head from side to side. He was lying down at the time the same as the rest of us and M.Guns were playing on us all the time. He attracted my attention by wriggling on the grojnd and then I saw that he had been hit and where. He was quite unconscious. He was picked up by the S/Bs and taken to the rear. I was afterwards told by the S/Bs that he had died. He was wounded on the 5th in the same counter attack in which Barnes was killed. I was under the impression that he had died in the Regtl. Aid Post which would be long before the 10th. Jackson was about 5 ft.4 or perhaps even less, fair and of slight build. He came I think from Woollangabba just outside Brisbane. I should put him down at about 21 or 22.
