DOMINICK. F J. 7232.

M. Oct. 4th 1917.

I knew Dominick as an army acquaintance, but with regard to his being missing I would refer you to Sgt. Maj. Thomas of the same Coy. who would be able to give you useful information, though my opinion is that Dominick was killed

I knew Casualty, he was of ruddy complexion, 22 years of age, and stout. Casualty was in the advance at Passchendaele Ridge, Ypres, and was carrying Stokes Trench Mortars to the guns, when a shell landed near by, killing Casualty and several others. I do not know if he was buried.
