I knew a Turner in 47th Battalion whom we called "Bert" whose number was 27 hundred odd. They may not be the same man. Bert was a H.Q.Scout and was taken prisoner at Dernancourt about the date mentioned above. He escaped on Armistice day. I was speaking to him in April 1919 at Sutton Veney. He is waiting to go home to Australia with his wife whom he married in Scotland. he has had no word from his people since captured.

He is about 24 years of age, pleasant face, full features. He came from Lismore N.S.W., but joined up in Queensland. He is a Draper.

Pte E. Gorton, 47th Battalion who is at present doing guard duty at Horseferry Road, could give further information.

M. 5/4/18.

I have made exhaustive enquiries about Bill Turner (D. Coy HQ) who was a great mate of mine. All his section were killed at Dernacourt; being surrounded by the enemy.

I searched diligently for him and have come to the conclusion that he must have fared the same fate as the others.
