3363 Private Francis Edward Murphy

47th Battalion

1860408R

A.I.F. 47th Battn.

MURPHY
F.E. 3363.

Missing 5/4/18.

I bandaged him up after our attack at Villers-Bretonneux in April He was badly wounded by shrapnel in both legs and we had to leave him on the ground when we retired at about 5 p.m. The Germans occupied the ground soon after. He was a mate of mine and was in B Company V. He was thin, dark, about 5' 8" and about 25. We called him Frank.

Murphy P.J. No.3363.

K. 5th April 1915.

I knew him well he was in my platoon. On the 5th April we were to the right of Albert Road holding the line. Fritz attacked about 2 p.m. and turned us out of our position behind an embankment. During the attack Murphy was hit by a shell and his leg was broken. It was dressed and he was put on a stretcher but it was not possible to get him away and he should be a prisoner.
