W.O.Cl.II (C.S.M.)
Thomas Steven
CARTER

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on many occasions, more especially on 18th Jan., 1918 at LA BASSE VILLE, when this W.O. was in charge of a reconnoitring patrol. Coming into contact with an enemy patrol, he worked round them and succeeded in causing them casualties. He personally shot the German Officer & secured from the body important maps & identifications.

His vigilance and activity proved of great value to his Coy. Commander.

He has been three times wounded in attacks, and during the last 2½ years he has always exhibited great personal bravery and daring.

II) Reginald
HAWKINS.

This W.O. has been with his Battalion since its formation and his conduct has at all times been of an exemplary character. He has been energetic, conscientious and skilful in the discharge of his duties, and has always been keen to what ever he could to add to the well-being and comfort of the men.

His work in supervising the carrying of rations to the front line during the operations and periods in the line in the past six months has gone far to make for success.
