

Capt. Richard George MOSS.

23rd Bn., Aust. I. F.

Q. - Near VILLERS BRETONNEUX E. of AMIENS on 4th July, 1918, this Officer commanded his company in the attack with determination.

Q. - In the face of heavy enemy opposition he led at one point a portion of his command and filled up a gap, causing the enemy to withdraw. Meeting strong opposition, by skilful handling of his company, he overcame the enemy and captured 60 prisoners.

Q. - During the consolidation of the final objective he made a daylight reconnaissance 200 yards ahead although continually fired at

173