

11th
Battalion,
A.I.F.

3145

Sergeant
Theo WALTER

Date B. 8. 18.

During our attack upon the BLUE LINE on 11th August 1913, on the left flank Sgt. WALTER showed great bravery and devotion to duty.

When the N.C.O. in charge of a bombing party was wounded Sgt. WALTER rushed forward under heavy machine gun fire, caught up the wounded man and was carrying him to shelter when he himself was slightly wounded and the N.C.O. killed in his arms. He, however, brought the body of the wounded N.C.O. back to our lines, and taking command of the section led the men forward with great skill against the enemy, dislodging them, and gaining their section of trench under dispute.
