Rafferty, Rupert, Anstice,	Captain	12th Bn.	April 25th, 15. ARZAC.	Landed with the covering force at Arzac on the 25th of April. Took charge of C. Coy., during the first 3 days when the majority of the Senior Officers of the Bn., were killed or wounded. By his cool gallantry he imbued his men with confidence during that critical period and was of the greatest assistance to the Acting Commanding Officer. He has personally carried out many perilous reconnaissances and the bulk of the information which decided the move forward to Leane's Trench was supplied by him.	6
