

... Lt-Col SMITH, E.H.
12th Bn.

Who was in command of the 12th Bn. who made and held Tasmania post and to whose foresight and good judgment in pushing tunnels ahead of this post was due the opportunity of seizing the enemy trench and having communicating trenches available within a short period. Without these the trench taken could only have been held with great difficulty.