This soldier when a member of an advanced screen displayed great bravery and initiative in locating enemy 1" Guns and communicating their location to Tanks, thereby minimizing casualties in his Company. By his quickness of action and excellent shooting, he brought down two enemy officers who were escaping from Morecomb on horseback. On reaching the objective, he was found alone and returned with three prisoners and a M. G.	5/9/18	5/9/18

That conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty near Morecomb Aug 5th 1918. On the flank of the Battalion he maintained contact throughout and his leadership and example were noticeable throughout. When his Company closed round the village he pushed his men rapidly round the rear and cut off over 50 of the enemy who were escaping down a sunken road. He did very valuable and important work throughout, and especially during Consolidation under heavy machine gun fire.	5/9/18	5/9/18
