

2nd. Australian

1st. A. & N. Z. A.

18 June 1916

17th. Batn. 605 Sgt. J. LYONS

<sup>6</sup>
Equal During the attack on Hill 60, Gallipoli, he showed great coolness and presence of mind when under fire, attention being drawn to this fact by officers outside the Battalion. At Quinn's Post as Sgt. in charge of bombers, he proved very efficient and intrepid. His work in France has also been excellent. Places: Quinn's Post, 1st. Sept. - 20th. Dec. 15. France, 10th. April to date

C.C. 17th. Batn.

Do. 963 Sgt. J. L. MITCHELL

<sup>6</sup> For good work at Gallipoli, especially on the left during the first fortnight, where he had charge of parties bringing in and burying dead bodies exposed to fire, and for general good solid work during the whole time the Battalion was on Gallipoli and also since arrival in France. Gallipoli - 27th. August, 1915.

Do.

Do. 964 Cpl. C. H. MILLER

<sup>10</sup> For good work at Gallipoli, especially in the evacuation when he had charge of the last party of bombers on Courtney's Post, also for splendid work since arrival in France. Gallipoli - 20th. December, 1915.

Do.

~~10th. Batn. 2125 Pte. K. G. CUNNELLY~~

~~Conspicuously good work in reconnaissance and observation~~

~~C.C. 10th. Batn.~~

Military Medal