	46th Battalion A.I.F.	1686	Private Herbert Ray DOGGETT.	For conspicuous gallantry and initiative during the attack East of HAMEL on the morning of 8th August 1918. This man was a Company Scout and rendered wonderful assistance to the Company in guiding them to the jumping off tape. During the advance he worked well out in front of the line under very heavy machine gun and sniper fire, and sent back very valuable information to his Company Commander and greatly assisted the advance. He behaved with great gallantry throughout the operation.	Brigadier General. Commanding 12th Aust. Infantry Brigade.	M.M. Bw Card Smy
