	58th Battalion A.I.P.		Lieutenant Robert Bruce PORSYTH	This Officer has for the past six months acted as Lewis Gun Officer of this Battalion. He has been in every action in which the Battalion has taken part and he has done excellent work. Even when the Battalion has not been in the line he has frequently had to remain behind to assist other units. He has always been in the thick of the action regardless of personal danger, and by his example and devotion to duty, as also by his thorough training and untiring supervision of the work of the Lewis gunners, he has kept the Section in a high state of efficiency.		Mention in Despatches
