	4th. L.H.F.A attached 12th. A.L.H. Regiment.	2243	Private. Sydney. CLUNES.	For conspicuous gallantry & devotion to duty from 19.3.16. to 3.11.16. Pte Clunes displayed great gallantry at SAMAKH in dressing wounded under heavy Machine Gun & Rifle fire at risk of his own life. His services have been most valuable attending sick day & night & remained on duty (all other A.M.C. Personnel having being evacuated to Hospital) although ill with fever, till he was evacuated to Hospital himself. His constant devotion to duty was undoubtedly the means of saving a large number of men from serious illness. His conduct is most worthy of the highest consideration. I cannot speak too highly of the work done by Pte Clunes.	Brigadier-General Lieut-Colonel. Commanding 12th. A.L.H. Regiment.
