

Lieutenant-Colonel James ANDERSON, D.S.O., 1/6th Battalion
Highland Light Infantry.

For conspicuous good work during the period 1st March to 15th September, 1917.

On 17th April, 1917, during the operations resulting in the capture of MANSURA RIDGE, he came repeatedly to notice by the skilful way in which he handled his Battalion, by his assumption of the initiative and by good leadership. As Commanding Officer of the 6th Battalion Highland Light Infantry he has done exceptionally good all round work and brought his Battalion up to a high state of efficiency.

Previous award :- D.S.O.

✓ Recommended for C.M.G.
appl

Lieutenant-Colonel William Thomas Clifford BECKETT, 1/12th
Battalion Loyal North Lancashire Regiment.

This officer raised the Battalion and has commanded it ever since with the greatest ability. The high state of efficiency to which the Battalion has attained is very largely owing to his untiring efforts. His services are most worthy of recognition.

✓ Recommended for C.M.G.
D.S.O. appl

Minister