4th. Aust. 2030 Private
Inf. Battn. William SPENCE.

Near BULLECOURT, FRANCE on the night of May 8th. 1917, in spite of a heavy enemy shelling of an embankment occupied by the Company, these two stretcher bearers continued to dress and carry the wounded throughout the night. Their magnificent work undoubtedly saved many lives.

Inf. Battn. Septimus
SINCLAIR

Near BULLECOURT, FRANCE, Private SINCLAIR took charge of his Lewis Gun team in O.G.1 between 4th. and 8th. May 1917 and by his great courage and remarkable cheerfulness under very heavy shell fire he kept his team together and undoubtedly was a big factor towards holding the position.
