	14th. Battn. A.I.F.	-	Major Arthur Roy COX.	For conspicuous bravery and valuable services. This officer when temporarily in command of his Battalion was entrusted with the defence of a difficult and extensive sector linking up with French near VILLERS BRETONNEUX. Despite his small numbers and considerable enemy activity, by his skilful dispositions and admirable use of ground a very difficult sector was skilfully covered and proper liaison with the French secured. As a Company Commander of long standing and latterly as a second in Command of his Battalion he has always shown himself a resourceful and energetic soldier and has set an admirable example to his men when in action.	Edmund J. P. ... Lieut.-Col. Commanding 14th. Battalion A.I.F.	Belgian Croix de Guerre.
