DANIELL G.E.	Capt	New Zealand Field Artillery	8 th Aug 1915 CHLINLIK BAIR	For conspicuous gallantry and ability in handling the battery under his command. In the afternoon of 8 th August the Officer took over 4 guns of the 58 th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery, detachments were formed out of 4 New Zealand Officers 22 gunners from the second Battery New Zealand Field Artillery and 20 men from the 5 th Reinforcements who had landed at Anzac during that morning - the position was selected late in the afternoon and that night two guns were put into action and dug in at dawn fire was opened on Chunuk Bair, but one gun was soon put out of action. During the position being exposed to shell and machine gun fire it was changed during the night two more were brought up and at dawn on 11 th August the battery was ready to fire again, which it did with great effect, although subjected to a heavy cross fire from machine guns and a good deal of shell fire. I recommend that this Officer be awarded the Military Cross.	4
