| | 13th Australian Light Horse Regiment | 450 | Corporal MORTON WILLIAM ROBERT MORTON | For gallant conduct and devotion to duty in the field. During the operations East of Ypres in October - November 1917 this N.C.O. was in charge of 10 troopers engaged on road patrol duty. Although the area was continuously shelled by the enemy the party under his control remained consistently on the posts. Corporal Morton displayed great coolness and devotion to duty by his constant supervision, example and instruction to his men under very trying conditions. His conduct during 3 years service in the field has been of the highest order. ~~Copy of appreciation from I.C.C attached~~ (Sgd.) E. H. ELLIS Commanding Australian Corps | (Sgd.) [illegible] Lt.
