

Order of merit.	Unit	No.	Rank	and Name	Particulars
	10th Battalion		Captain	HERBERT, M.J.	This officer did excellent work, got his men splendidly dug in, and stuck to his trenches until badly wounded on Monday afternoon
			Lieut	BUMBALL, C.	Lieut Bumball held his platoon together in a splendid way and worked energetically in carrying messages to the firing line and the beach. He rendered splendid assistance to the regimental staff in reorganising supplies of rations, water and ammunition.
			7	Sergt-Major	SAWYER, H.G.	S.M. Sawyer was in charge of the machine guns and did excellent work. He had charge of the guns for four days and nights and never left his post for a minute. He acted very bravely and skilfully.
			3	Sergt.	LEANE, B.B.	Although wounded through the right arm and unable to use his rifle, Sergt Leane carried ammunition up to the trenches on his left shoulder while under fire.
			456	Private	WEATHERILL, J.C.	Assisted Lieut Talbot Smith to capture guns on Sunday morning (25th April) and also caught two Turkish prisoners. He is an excellent scout.
			122	"	GREENE, G.P.	When landing under heavy fire he noticed one of his comrades wounded and struggling in the water. He returned and brought the wounded man to shore.
		234	Sergt-Major	HENDERSON,	Led reinforcements to the firing line under very heavy rifle and machine gun fire. (All reported by Lieut. Colonel S. Price Weir.)
