	1st A.T. Coy. Australian Engineers	3433	2nd/Cpl. LYTH, John Godfrey.	This N.C.O. was in charge of Lewis Gun detachment, and in this, his first operation, used the gun to great advantage in keeping down enemy Machine Gun fire. During a heavy hostile counter attack he took the gun forward and covered the party on the outskirts of PLOEGSTERT VILLAGE, and afterwards covered the party, when falling back to prepared positions. His exceptional coolness, gallantry and devotion to duty, had an inspiring influence among the men in the operation of 10th April 1918.	G. R. E. Aust. Corps.	D. C. M.
