A. I. F. Administrative Headquarters. e. ______ Division. Corps. 10th December 1916. Date of Recommendation. Brigade.

Drigadier-General Hobert Murray ReCheyne ANDERSON,  Brigadier-General Anderson was sent out by the Australian Government especially to take up the appointment of D.Q.M.G. at the A.I.F. Head- quarters in Egypt at the beginning of this year.  When the A.I.F. was transferred to France, and its base to England, Brigadier-General Anderson was appointed to the command of the Australian Administrative Headquarters in London, where he has done some extraordinarily useful work, which is I believe well known to the War Office. He is practically in command of a very large administration, which he has handled with conspicuous success, and I trust his good	(To be left blank)
Commandant, A. L. P. Administrative Head- quarters.  Englander-General Anderson was sent out by the Australian Government especially to take up the appointment of D.C.M.G. at the A.I.F. Head- quarters in Egypt at the beginning of this year.  Finen the A.I.F. was transferred to France, and its base to England, Brigadier-General  Anderson was appointed to the command of the Australian Administrative Headquarters in London where he has done some extraordinarily useful Administrative Head- quarters.  the Australian Government especially to take up the appointment of D.Q.M.G. at the A.I.F. Head- quarters in Egypt at the beginning of this year.  Finen the A.I.F. was transferred to France, and its base to England, Brigadier-General Anderson was appointed to the command of the Australian Administrative Headquarters in London, where he has done some extraordinarily useful  Total which is I believe well known to the Ear
Then the A.I.F. was transferred to France,  and its base to England, Brigadier-General  Anderson was appointed to the command of the  Australian Administrative Headquarters in London,  where he has done some extraordinarily useful  The work which is I believe well known to the War
Then the A.I.F. was transferred to France, and its base to England, Brigadier-General Anderson was appointed to the command of the Australian Administrative Headquarters in London, where he has done some extraordinarily useful	ı
and its base to England, Brigadier-General  Anderson was appointed to the command of the  Australian Administrative Headquarters in London,  where he has done some extraordinarily useful Anderson was appointed to the command of the  Australian Administrative Headquarters in London  where he has done some extraordinarily useful  work which is I believe well known to the Ear Australian Administrative Headquarters in London, where he has done some extraordinarily useful where he has done some extraordinarily useful where he has done some extraordinarily useful  work, which is I believe well known to the War  Office. He is practically in command of a very  large administration, which he has handled with office. He is practically in command of a very Inrue administration, which he has handled with I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I
conspicuous success, and I trust his good	, services may be recognised.
Pol. A foot that he I coollinged.
Lieutenant-General. Commanding Australian Imperial Force.	