	1st Battalion	3574	PRIVATE WILLIAM JOHN HARVEY	At POLYGON WOOD on 26/28th. September, 1917, this soldier showed unexampled bravery in attending to wounded under heavy shell fire and by his fortitude under the most adverse conditions helped to a great extent in maintaining a spirit of supreme confidence in his comrades. For 3 days and nights he toiled unceasingly but never once was he found unwilling to volunteer when stretcher bearers were required.	W. J. Harvey	W. J. Harvey
