	31st Battalion	3411	Private <sup>IVOR</sup> THOMAS MACKIE EDWARD	At POLYGON WOOD on 26/28th. September, 1917, when only one officer was left in his company, this soldier, a signaller, took upon himself, the combined duties of runner, signaller and rallier. He repeatedly carried messages under the heaviest fire, led men to their places in the final objective and by his consummate coolness and total disregard of danger, helped the whole company to maintain its wonderful spirit of cheerfulness.
