F. | 4800       | SergeantWilliamHaroldJENKINS.         | This N.C.O. is employed on the Battalion Headquarters as Orderly Room Sergeant, and during the period 22nd September 1917 to 25th February 1918 has carried out his duties with a thoroughness that is worthy of the highest commendation. His knowledge of military routine and his thorough handling of the office work under all conditions have been a valuable asset to the Battalion. Sergeant JENKINS has accompanied Battalion Headquarters on all occasions when in the line, and often the execution of his duties entailed the greatest hardships. During the fighting in the YPRES Sector in September and October 1917 the course of his work often brought him under heavy artillery fire, but he always displayed great courage and devotion to duty. (SIGNED) J.T.
