Date of Recommendation. Division. Brigade. 2nd Australian Australian Honour Rank and Name Action for which commended (To be left Recommended Regtl. No. Unit Schedule No. blank) br (Christian names must be stated) (Date and place of action must be stated) Reward (no be let blank) On the 8th August 1918 N.E. of VILLERS 362 Sergeant 2nd Aust. Pioneer Hugh BRETON EUX. For conspicuous gallahtry and devotion to ALLIOTT, M.M., Battalion. duty. Whilst working with his Platoon constructing and repairing roads for Artillery A, IF. to go forward, the plateon encountered 13 of the enemy, missed by the Infantry in the fog. The enemy officer opened fire on the party and Sergeant Elliott im-ediately attacked the party killing the officer and taking the remainder of party prisoners. His cool and courageous action saved the lives of the men of the Platoun and enabled the important work to be successfully carried out. (Sgt. Elliott received M.M. for operations 14th November 1916.) (Sgd) Charles ROSENTHAL, Maj-Gen. Commanding 2nd. Australian Division.