Lieutenant
Harold Eustace
WOODMAN

Lieut WOODMAN has done consistent good work with his section of Machine Guns which he has commanded since December 1915. The fire of his guns was very effective and well directed at POZIERES on 19th JULY, and Lieut WOODMAN by his coolness under heavy shell fire has always shown a fine example to his men.

Lieutenant
Julian Walter
RICHARDS

Lieut. RICHARDS has frequently been in temporary command of the 1st Australian Machine Gun Company and shown himself to be most efficient. At POZIERES, 19th JULY, his coolness under fire initiative and power of command were greatly in evidence.
