	18th Battery 6th Army Bde A.F.A.	2730	Gunner (Temporary Bombardier) Mark FOSTER	This recommendation is made under A.R.02475 in respect of the period March 1916 to October 1918. This man has been a Linesman with his Battery throughout its service in France and has on several occasions tempor- arily taken charge of his Signal Unit during one period for over two months. Throughout the Battery's service on the SOMME in 1916 at MESSINES, HIRUPORT and YPRES in 1917, near MORLANCOURT in 1918 and during the recent advance in 1918 he has been brought to notice for his consistent good work: gallan- try under fire and fine example to others. He has on more than one occasion volunteered for specially dangerous duty. Although offered less dangerous work in his Battery he has at his own desire remained as a Linesman. He is devoid of fear and by his courage, ability and energy has been of the greatest value to his Unit.	10 Lt. Col G.O. 6th Army Bde A.F.A.	MILITARY MEDAL
