970	Enf. Australian Machine Gun Battalion. A. I. F.	418	Private David LAZARUS.	During the operations at MONTBREHAIN, near on October 6th. 1918, he captured a German machine gun (which was holding our advance) single handed. The crew of 8 Germans fired on him with M.G. and rifles while he crossed 40 yards of open ground. Pte. Lazarus shot two of the crew with his revolver and compelled the remaining six to surrender.	L. J. Moore Major	D.C.M.	D.C.M. ✓
8971	Enf. Australian Machine Gun Battalion. A. I. F.	718	Sergeant Thomas WILSON.	On 3rd. October, during the operations at BEAUREVOIR, near ST.QUENTIN, Sgt. Wilson had charge of two M.Gs. attached to 26th. Battn. Aust. Infantry. After getting his guns into action he reconnoitred forward under heavy M.G. fire, and discovered valuable information as to the enemy position at BELLEVUE FARM. He covered a slight withdrawal of the line by M.G. fire, though he was under direct fire from the enemy, and then carried several wounded men to our lines. During this time his gun crew became casualties and he worked single handed until he found a crew for his gun. After getting his gun into action again, he went across the open in face of heavy enemy fire and succeeded in getting one M.G. into action from parts of three which had been knocked out. His energy, initiative and disregard of danger were most exemplary.	King & W.O.
