During the operations of the 32nd.Battalion near BELLICOURT between the 29th/September/ 1st.October Corporal Palmer showed much gallantry, courage and initiative. The work of Corporal Palmer was splendid throughout and he set the finest example to the men under him. The encouraging effect of this was most marked. While the platoon was passing NAUROY he was in charge of two sections engaged together with two other sections under another N.C.O. working along two parallel lines of trenches in mopping, their advance was so intrepid and so well carried out that Forty prisoners together with 5 Machine Guns fell into their hands. This success was wholly due to the skill and qualities of courage and leadership displayed.		M.C.
