Bard.	32nd Battalion. A.I.F.	1854.	Private (Lance Corporal) Herbert FARMER.	During the operations near BELLICOURT from 29th September to 1st October 1918, this man displayed gallantry and devotion to duty. While moving forward in front of ETRICOURT one of his comrades was badly wounded. At the time they were under heavy machine gun fire. In spite of this he attended to the wounded man and subsequently risked his life in carrying him to a place of safety. This work was very gallant and set a fine example to all who witnesses it.	E.TIVEY, Brig.Gen, Commdng, 8th Aust Infantry Brigade.	Mention in Corps Orders.
Corp'l R.O. 26/3 3.11.18 Bard	32nd Battalion. A.I.F.	3657.	Private (Lance Corporal) Frederick Harold JOHNSON	During the operations near BELLICOURT from 29th September to 1st October 1918, he showed gallantry and initiative. On one occasion when English troops on thr right flank suffered heavy casualties from machine gun fire he took out in the face of heavy enemy fire stretcher parties and succeeded in bringingback to our lines many of the wounded. It was undoubtedly due to this man's prompt action that many lives were saved.	do.	do.
