	59 th Batt.	1505	C. S. M. RUPERT WILLIAMS	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Near Bellefont on 29th September when his company came under very heavy shell and machine gun fire this NCO displayed the greatest bravery in seeing about & organising the attack. Although wounded he continued on duty & his initiative & courage contributed largely to extricate his company from a difficult position. For his coolness & utter disregard of personal safety under exceptionally trying circumstances he set an inspiring example to all.	Lieut. Col. [Signature] 159th Coy. [Signature]	MM
