	A.A.V. 61215 A.A.V. 61215 8th Aust. Inf. Brigade.		Sgt Drummond John James.	Consistent devotion to duty from 14. 6. 18. with the 5th Australian Division in France. During the advance in August 1918 it was impossible for a Veterinary Officer to see the horses regularly, owing to the movements of the troops. During this period he was untiring in his efforts for the benefit of the general condition of the horses, & in attendance on the sick & injured. It was largely owing to his efforts that the number of evacuations from this Division from August 8th to October 6th 1918 were so light.	For meritorious service & devotion to duty during the period	M.S.M.
