| not. 5 207496 | Australian Engineers. Chief Signal Officer Australian Corps. | | Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Rees WILLIAMS D.S.O. DSO 4-6-17 | For his conspicuous good work as Chief Signal Officer. In April he rapidly organised a signal service for the needs of the forces defending AMIENS which he speedily improved throughout the summer. He worked at, with the greatest energy and ability, the signal arrangements for the attack of 8th August and the succeeding operations that led to the breaking of the Hindenberg Line with the result that the signal communications were always ready for the strain thrown upon them. | G.O.C.
