	47th Battery	1863	Sgt. BARTLEY H. C. Sgt. EDWARD. CHARLES BARTLEY	near Bullerout During the 7th May, Sgt. BARTLEY was continually out mending the telephone wires under very shell fire. Early in the day Cmr. Vickrose the other linesman with him was wounded. Sgt. BARTLEY was responsible for mending 14 breaks in the wire, and by his fine example, not only encouraged the other linesman in their dangerous work, but also maintained communications at times under great difficulty throughout the day. Ever since the formation of this battery this N.C.O. has carried out his duties in a most gallant and conscientious manner.	COMMANDING, 12th. (ARMY) F. BRIGADE	MILITARY MEDAL
