	2nd. Battery, 1st. Australian Field Artillery Brigade.		Lieut. Percy Pedder SCRIVENER.	For gallantry and devotion to duty on MONT de MERRIS, on 28th. June, 1918 when as Forward Observation Officer and Liaison Officer, he transmitted under heavy shell fire, the intention of our Infantry to opportunely capture some enemy posts, and thus enabled his Brigade of Artillery to efficiently support the Infantry, - all objectives and some prisoners were taken. He repaired his telephone line under intense shell fire, maintained communication with his Brigade, and afforded Infantry opportunity to report progress over his wire, all other means of communications at the time being dislocated. Later on the same day, during a further operation he again rendered valuable service as Forward Observation Officer, engaging several targets with his Battery most effectively.	C.O. 1st.
